

The Spartanburg County Parks Department believes that parks and recreation facilities and services are vitally important in promoting the emotional and physical wellness of citizens as well as the financial well-being of the community.

Parks in Spartanburg County have historically been viewed as a place to play ball or to have a family picnic. Spartanburg County Parks Department facilities and programs are fun, safe, legally compliant, and family-friendly, offering both active and passive recreation opportunities to promote an active, healthy lifestyle for people of all ages and abilities.

The Parks Department's Outdoor Recreation Program includes a number of fun and challenging fitness activities that help develop appreciation for Spartanburg County's impressive natural resources. We recognize the importance and benefits that the hobby of Geocaching promotes and are very glad to partner with the participants of the hobby, and invite you all to come and see what Spartanburg County Parks have to offer!
